Statistics Sweden describes Sweden

Statistics Sweden provides society with statistics for decision-making, debate and research on behalf of the Government, government agencies, researchers and industry. These statistics contribute to fact-based public discourse and informed decisions.

Are you worried about being subjected to crime? Do you feel safe when taking a walk in the evening? Is your neighbourhood well kept?

On behalf of Uppsala municipality, Statistics Sweden is carrying out a survey on safety and security, and you are one of 10 130 individuals who have been randomly selected to participate in this survey.

We are conducting the survey to find out how Uppsala residents feel about safety in their neighbourhoods. The results will be used in the joint efforts of Uppsala municipality and the police to improve security and reduce crime.

Your answers are important

Taking part in the survey is voluntary, but because your answers are highly valuable, we hope that you wish to participate. Your answers will give us a better understanding of how residents feel about their neighbourhoods. Your experiences and views are therefore very important.

Who will use the answers and how?

After completing processing, Statistics Sweden will depersonalise the data and forward it to Uppsala municipality for further processing and analysis. Handling by Uppsala municipality of the data is also subject to confidentiality (see below).

In order to avoid asking unnecessary questions, we have supplemented your answers with information that is already available at Statistics Sweden. These are details concerning sex, age, foreign background, duration of stay in Sweden, country of birth (by group), level of education, occupation, civil status, type of household, area code in Uppsala, type of residence, the number of years you have been registered in the same residence/property, as well as your main source of income (e.g. from employment, education, unemployment benefits, parental leave, sick-leave benefits, sickness benefits).

How are my answers protected?

When the results are presented it will not be possible to see any individual answers.

Information about an individual's personal and financial circumstances is kept confidential and everyone working on the survey is bound by the duty of professional secrecy. Confidentiality applies in accordance with Chapter 24, Section 8 of the Public Access to Information and Secrecy Act (2009:400). The same confidentiality applies for Uppsala municipality.

How will my personal data be processed?

Statistics Sweden is the data controller of the personal data that it processes. Uppsala municipality is the controller of personal data that it processes.

The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Official Statistics Act (2001:99) and the Official Statistics Ordinance (2001:100) contain provisions on processing personal data. In addition, there are rules in the Act on Supplementary Provisions to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2018:218) and in regulations issued in association with this Act.

More information on how Statistics Sweden processes your personal data is available at www.scb.se/personuppgifter.

You have the right to obtain, free of charge, a copy in the form of a register extract, of the personal data processed by Statistics Sweden in its capacity of data controller. Further information is available at www.scb.se/registerutdrag. If you find that Statistics Sweden has processed your personal data in a way that is in violation of the EU General Data Protection Regulation, you have the right to have your personal data erased in certain circumstances. You have the same rights in relation to Uppsala municipality.

Please state the number listed above the heading in this letter in any contact with us and we can help you faster.
